DAMUBEN W/O CHAMPAKBHAI MOHAN-BHAI PATEL THRO' SON SUNIL

Versus

COMMISSIONER OF POLICE

Appearance:

MR NM KAPADIA for Petitioner

MR HN SOMPURA AGP for Respondent-State.

CORAM : MR.JUSTICE R.P.DHOLAKIA

Date of decision: 10/08/2000

ORAL JUDGEMENT

The petitioner has been detained under the provisions of Gujarat Prevention of Anti-Social Activities Act, 1985 (hereinafter referred to as " the Act of 1985") by the order dated 19-5-2000, passed by the Police Commissioner, Surat, and she has been declared as bootlegger.

2. It is now well settled that unless the activities of a person as bootlegger has disturbed the maintenance of public order, he cannot be detained under the Act. Reliance is placed on a decision of the case of Piyush Kantilal Mehta vs. Commissioner of Police, Ahmedabad & Ors. reported in AIR 1989 SC 491.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the detaining authority has relied upon C.R. No.551/99 registered at Pandesara Police Station, wherein the charge sheet is filed. However, the statements of Police Constable Kamla Dik Bahadur and PI of Pandesara Police Station are not placed before the detaining authority and, therefore, the subjective satisfaction of the detaining authority is vitiated. He has further argued that since the aforesaid statements are not supplied to the detenu, there is non communication of the grounds, which has also affected the right of the detenu to make effective representation. Over and above, the petitioner sent a request letter dated 7-6-2000 through her advocate to the respondent No.2 demanded statement of police personnels regarding all registered cases and other documents, but the same have not been supplied to the petitioner till today and, therefore, it affected the right of the petitioner to make effective representation.

5. Learned counsel for the petitioner has placed reliance on a decision reported in 1991 (1) G.L.H. 346 Jeeva Veiyapuri Madrasi v.Commissioner of Police, Ahmedabad, and another wherein it is held as under.

> " In the affidavit-in-reply it has been stated that the statement of witnesses which were recorded by the investigation agency were not considered to be relevant or material for the purpose of being satisfied that the petitioner whose name is very much disclosed in the FIR itself, was involved in the nefarious activities which were found to be prejudicial to the maintenance of 'public order'. Without looking at the statements the detaining authority cannot say whether they are irrelevant or otherwise. Therefore, that part of the statement made by the detaining authority cannot be accepted. It was incumbent upon the detaining authority to consider the statement recorded under S. 161 of the code by the police during the investigation of the offences for which the charge-sheet were already placed before him. In absence of the said statements the satisfaction arrived at by the detaining authority is vitiated and therefore, the whole order of detention is vitiated.

6. In view of the above position, I am of the opinion that the detaining authority failed to supply relevant documents to the detenu for making an effective representation which has infringed the detenu's right under Article 22 (5) of the Constitution.

7. Since the petitioner succeeds only on this point, learned advocate for the petitioner does not press any other points.

8. In view of the aforesaid discussion, the petition is allowed. The impugned order of detention dated 19-5-2000 passed against the detenu is hereby quashed. The petitioner-detenu Damuben w/o. Champakbhai Mohanbhai Patel is hereby ordered to be set at liberty forthwith, if not required to be detained in any other case. Rule is made absolute accordingly with no order as to costs.
